of successes--and failures,
of learning, of living and of growing.

Class Prayer

Our Heavenly Father,

We ask that Your gracious presence might be felt in each of our lives as we prepare to become a part of a world which has so much become a part of us. We pray Your blessing on those who have continually lifted us up when we have fallen, so that we might reach this goal in our lives. For those who have helped to mold us--our parents, teachers, and friends--we thank You. And we pray that we may become what You would have us be. Grant unto each of us a sincere love and understanding for our fellow men, courage to stand up for our convictions, perseverance to continue when we have failed, and wisdom to be able to distinguish right from wrong.

We pray also for our world and its people everywhere. May all peoples of this earth become united in achieving a goal of peace, in creating a world where men can live without fear of war and hatred between nations--a world where man can once again trust his neighbor. Prepare us for that task You have prepared for us in this world.

Forgive us and forever guide us.

In Christ's name we pray.

Amen

CLASS HISTORY

1969 . . . We were finally in senior high. As sophomores we elected Linda Swauger president; Pam Bowers, secretary; Vicki Teets, vice-president; and Annette Klotz, treasurer. Susan Layman and Pam Bowers were selected majorettes, and Patty Bender and Ellen Hershberger were chosen cheerleaders. Sandy Wengerd represented us as treasurer in Student Council. "Rainbow Fountains" was the theme of our Sophomore Dance with Ellen Hershberger queen. Patty Miller was elected FFA Sweetheart Queen. Ellen Hershberger was sophomore princess in the Autumn Glory Festival and was escorted by Joey Reichenbecher.

1970 . . . Juniors! As class president we chose Greg Kidd. Backing him up were Susan Layman, vice-president; Vicki Teets, secretary; and Jeannie Wagner, treasurer. Elections were held with plans to renovate the Student Council. Chosen from the junior class were Carla Sisler, vice-president, and Linda Glotfelty, secretary. Linda Swauger became a welcome addition to the majorettes. James Oester won the Mountain Top Oratorical Contest and traveled to Baltimore. The Autumn Glory Festival Junior Princess, Linda Swauger, was escorted by Charles Thomas. We felt like juniors upon the arrival of class rings. A memorable event was the banquet-prom at Wisp. "Age of Aquarius" was our theme, with Cathy Hinebaugh, senior, reigning as queen.

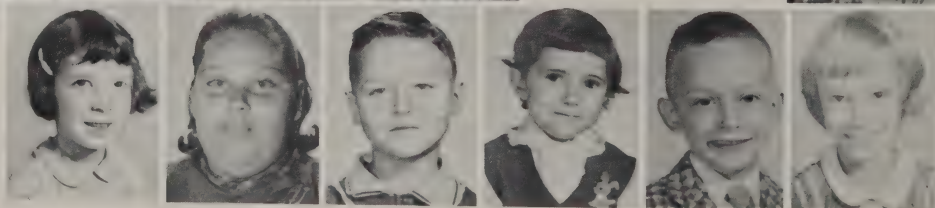

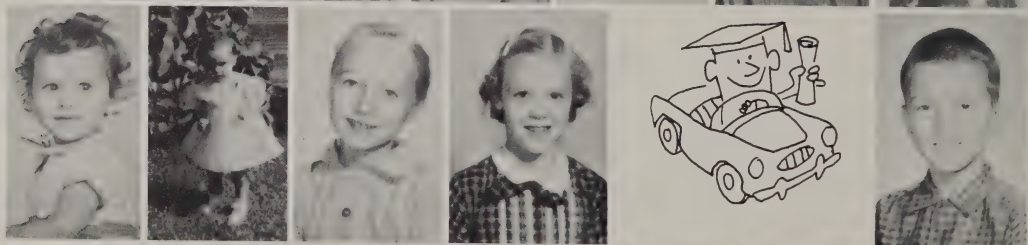

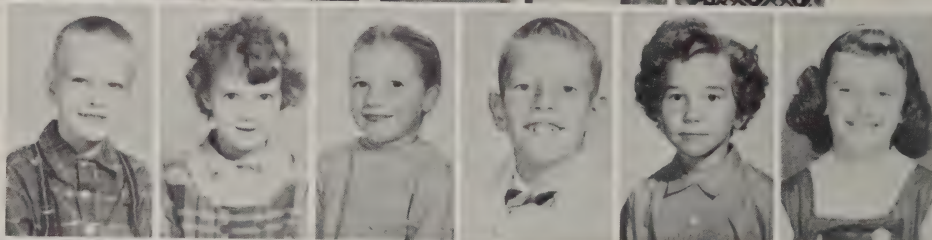

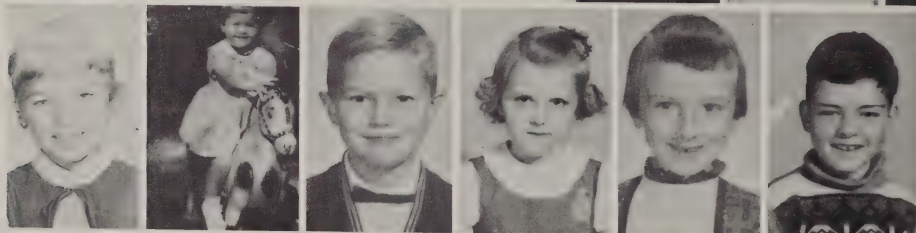

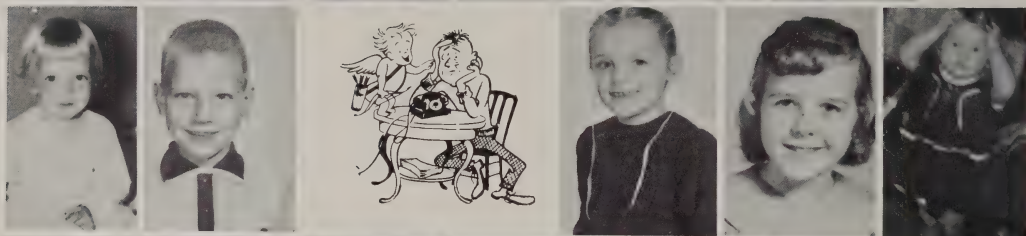

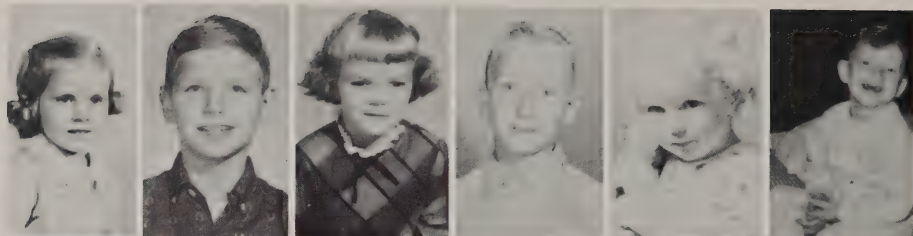

1971! Our dream had come true. We were seniors. Leading us through our final year was Vicki Teets, president. Other officers were Craig Wengerd, vice-president; Jenny Knox, secretary; Jeanne Wagner, treasurer; Kris DeWitt, parliamentarian; and Charles Thomas, historian. Pam Bowers became head majorette, and Alana Skidmore was elected band president. Ellen Hershberger was chosen by her fellow cheerleaders as captain, with Patty Bender co-captain. Carla Sisler was president of the newly-formed Student-Faculty Senate, with Linda Glotfelty serving as parliamentarian, and Susan Wiley as class representative. Heading the Viking as editor was Ellen Smith, while Norma Hollada was North Star editor. Ellen Smith was selected as a student page to go to Annapolis, Md., with Donna Kinsinger appointed as alternate. The Autumn Glory Festival featured Queen Judy Rounds, escorted by Craig Wengerd. Karen Platter was the senior princess with Joey Reichenbecher as her escort. Obtaining honorable mention on the Tri-Valley All Star football team were Rick Wakefield, Sam Steinhauer, Brad Beachy and John Hyson. Alana Skidmore reigned as Queen over the annual Homecoming pageant and dance. "Smiling Faces" was the theme of the senior party. The seniors were also honored at a tea. Ellen Hershberger became the Garrett County Junior Miss. The class of '72 holds fond memories of years past and fond hopes for the future. The beginning—1969 . . . the end—1972.

CLASS PROPHECY

As we peer into our mirror, the future of our seniors is revealed. Sally Beachy is taking dictation of a long-winded speech given by Keith Coddington, mayor of Friendsville. Since graduation Sam Steinhauer has been taking it easy looking at magazines. Is that Sherry Stein on the centerfold? Betty Swauger and Denise Brenneman are grocery shopping at Bill Kelly's market. At the meat counter Peggy Gittere is teaching Henry Bowser the ropes of meat-cutting. Big money seems to come naturally to Gary King, bank president, as Charee Reckner and Meg Browning deposit their Ky. Derby winnings. Secretaries also come his way as Carla Sisler, Ann Klotz and Jenny Knox keep the boss happy. Craig Wengerd and Rick Shoemaker are finally pro ball players. Jack, owner of Kahl's Service-Center, is inspecting the work of his first class grease-monkeys, Wayne Oester and Ray Guthrie. Eddie Casteel is doing a welding job on the boss's car. We see several happy homes with Sandy Wengerd, Ruth Kolb, Mary Wilburn, Patty Sisler, Nancy Loughrie, and Donna Michaels as contented housewives. Nancy Lawson visits the dentist, Randy Thomas, for a set of false teeth. Judy Rounds, dental assistant, assures her it won't hurt. We see John Hyson entering the classrooms of Vicki Teets and Sharon Thomas to find out what a radiologic technician is. Bill Hetz is going to turn his Sugar Shack into a $2 million farm as soon as he contacts two reliable draftsmen, Kris DeWitt and Mark Herring. Truck drivers Bill Fratz, Leo Lowdermilk, Bill Hetrick and Bill Wagner have gone on strike again. Gang leader Debbie Taylor says they must have a raise. Behind the counter of Joey Reichenbecher's Men's Shop is Connie Kamp. She is stalling George Tasker, Richard Brenneman and Charles Resh while Marlene Yoder catches up on her altering. "Calling Doctors Jerry Humberson and James Oester. Report to the delivery room immediately." It seems that Alana Skidmore Wakefield is ready to give birth to her sixth child. Assistance is needed from nurses Alice Miller, Debbie Durst, Liz Corley, and Susan Flanagan. Dottie

George takes it easy at the desk as Head Nurse. Checking in for another day's work is Karen Platter, Physical Therapist. Lanny Savage, mortician, is conducting funeral services of a recent hospital patient. It seems that Ellen Hershberger, dietician, has made a boo-boo. Uncle Sam has made up the minds of all the undecided young men. Residents of an army camp, Marvin Kolb, Walter Wiland, Brad Beachy, Ken Beitzel and Eugene Durst are marching to the hup 2-3-4 of drill sergeants Stanley Bittinger and Randy Nugent. Daryl McKenzie and Leroy Cox thoroughly enjoy their Navy careers. Missionaries Jan Yoder and Alma Maust just had a chat with social workers Bonnie Hutzel and Carol Bowser. Women's Lib has come a long way; up ahead is Com. Edith Fazenbaker encouraging fellow women Pfc's Donna McClintock, Ruth DeWitt and Norma Faidley to "go get 'em girls." Alan Campbell and Barney Teets, TWA pilots, have had another night on the town. Stewardesses, Joyce Friend and Sharron Broadwater, tried to sober them up, but Marvin Glass and Gene Benedict covered for them again. U.S. Ambassadors Susan Wiley and Jim Edmiston are on flight to Paris to settle the Vietnam War. LuAnn Baker greets them with a smile while Brenda Miller prepares the main dish—hamburgers with onions and tartar sauce. Susan Layman and Ellen Smith put finishing touches on Pam Bowers' hair-do as she gets ready to receive an Emmy for best actress in Bonanza. Blasting off to the moon are Astronauts Donna Kinsinger, Linda Glotfelty and Norma Hollada. With them are carpenters Jim Uphold, Kedrick Lapp, and Mike McCarty on their mission to build moon city. Bonnie Campbell has been sent along to provide the moon with oxygen by planting flowers from her greenhouse. There goes Trooper Rick Wakefield, chasing the blue streak that just zipped by him again. It's time Linda Swauger gets another warning. Body guards Alan Richter and David Wiley surround VP Larry Bittinger and First Lady Patty Bender as they enter to see the art showings of Jeannie Wagner, Pat Welmer, and Don Shunk. President Charlie Thomas is giving his State of the Union Address which is broadcast on station D-U-K-E, owned and operated by Robert Clinton. Ed Savage, technician, stands by to take care of difficulties. Sharon Bender has just been hired by the Casselman. She is still a little nervous. She has just spilled a glass of water on Karen Monn. The picture is beginning to fade as our seniors continue toward their destinies.
